18 Roseberry Road

Description

Beautifully presented Victorian terrace located on popular Roseberry Road in Redfield, just a short walk away from Netham Park and Church Road with it's independent shops, cafes and eateries.

This lovely home has been much improved by its current owner and has retained much of its period charm, including stripped wooden floors, original doors and built in dresser.
The ground floor offers a bayed living and a full width dining room with double doors to the garden. There's a stylish fitted kitchen and also a modern downstairs bathroom with shower over the bath.
Upstairs you'll find three double bedrooms, including a full width main bedroom to the front.
Outside is a great size low maintenance garden with lots of plants and shrubs, patio seating area and a shed. There is also potential for rear access to be reinstated to
